THE LOST OPPORTUNITY.

I had been invited to preach for a few Sabbaths in a pleasant village on the seaboard.—During services, on my first Sunday's labors, my attention was attracted to a tall, rough-looking man, of pale countenance, on my right. Each time I glanced in his direction, I saw that his eyes were fixed upon me, as if he were intent to hear, and yet with an expression that betokened any thing but sympathy with the truths of the Gospel. There was nothing in his personal appearance that would lead one to single him from the throng of strangers in the sanctuary, yet anxiety for his spiritual good arose in my heart, and during the succeeding week I experienced a solicitude in his behalf that could only express itself in prayer. Next Sabbath, on my return, the stranger occupied the same seat, and while preaching I often felt for him an interest so peculiar that I resolved to seek an interview for religious conversation. Lingering to speak with Christian friends, he had retired from the congregation before I had put my resolution in practice

"Who is the tall man that sat in the third slip on my right?" I asked of a lady resident of the place

O," she replied, "that's Mr L——, a poor, wretched infidel, who don't believe in the Bible, nor even that there is a God A fearfully violent and blasphemous opponent of religion, I can't imagine how he happened to come to church to-day; he has not been within a Christian sanctuary for years"

"It is singular, but without any knowledge of his condition, I have felt an earnest desire to speak to him on the subject of his soul's salvation. How do you think he would receive it?"

"He would swear at you terribly, I fear.—Why, that man will stand up, and dare God to strike him dead!"

"Is it possible!"

"Yes, and what makes his case worse, is, he has a bad cough that may end in consumption. When a coughing-fit comes on, it puts him in a rage, that vents itself in the most shocking oaths.

What I heard respecting the man of itself would not have disheartened me. But there was such a thing I remembered, as casting "pearls before swine," and impressions were so fruitless. Therefore, I deferred calling upon him, as I had designed that week; however, I was unhappy from a conviction of neglected duty that no reasoning could remove. Wherever I went, however occupied, his pale face would haunt me, and mentioning the case to a Christian acquaintance, united prayer was frequently offered for his conversion. I had determined to speak with him the next Sabbath, without fail. But he was not in his place. My engagements were such that I could not conveniently visit him at his home Another week rolled by, and he was still missing.

"Where is Mr. L?" I inquired of the friend before alluded to: "I must see him. I believe the Holy Spirit is impressing his case upon my soul, and I shall not find peace till I have one faithful talk with him, whether he repulses me or not,"

"Ah sir," was the reply, "you are too late!"

"Too late! What do you mean!" I asked trembling.

"He is dead!"

"Dead!"

"Yes, his end was dreadful. A week ago last Thursday night, he was sitting conversing with his wife, when she says, something internal seemed to break, sounding like the running down of a clock. Instantly he sprang to his feet, exclaiming, "My time has come!" then sinking on his faces, he cried to God for mercy. His shrieks were heard by neighbors living far away. In a few moments all was over, he had breathed his last!"

The intelligence smote heavily on my heart, filling me with an agony almost too keen to be borne.

"O," I cried, "would that I had yielded to the Spirit, and not lingered to question and doubt: O, that I had spoken one word to him concerning his need of Christ!" I then related, with shame and confusion of face, all my exercises in relation to the deceased

"Strange," said my friend, "that that man talked much about you the last week or two, and always in your favor. He uttered not a word against your preaching. I know not but he would have welcomed anything you might have said to him."

He had heard something of the Gospel the two Sabbaths he had not scorned what he heard united intercession had been made for him: he had cried for mercy at last: there was a gleam of comfort in these reflections. but O, what would I not have given to have had some testimony from his own lips that he had renounced atheism and cast himself on the grace of the compassionate Saviour.

Christian reader, our fathers and mothers in Israel believed in the office-work of the Holy Spirit; believed that he resumed on the heart in which He dwelt to special labor for perishing souls. Have we not wandered away from their simple, scriptural faith, and thus grieved the Holy Comforter, and become unfruitful in the work of the Lord, till it is to be feared that the blood of souls may be found on our garments O, if you would never know the bitter sorrow that to this day overwhelms me, as memory recalls that poor skeptic, yield to the heavenly guidance, and fear not to speak when the Spirit prompts.

THE END.

When will the end come and what will it be? Who can answer, with any assurance, such momentous questions as these? We do not pretend that we can, but we propose nevertheless, to approximate the future results of this war, as briefly and as correctly as we can.—Are we then able to put down this rebellion? and shall we do so? We answer unhesitatingly, yes, to both of these questions. But let us not be deceived. We are powerful and strong as yet in all the resources of a great nation and in the material of war, but we are not numerically what we reckon ourselves by the census. We are not, for instance, twenty millions strong against this rebellion, and why? Because the hearts of the whole millions are not in the war—are not wholly dedicated to the salvation of this Union and the regeneration of this land. Many there are who are careless and lake-warm, and many there are who are positive sympathizers with an iniquitous slaveocracy. Some of these semi-traitors and positive disloyalists, are men of influence, and some are in high official positions. Our country is not only bleeding at every pore from the assaults of eight millions of open and armed rebels, but is wounded daily by fatal stabs from those who owe her the truest allegiance, and her enemies are "those of her own household"—the bitterest enmity known upon earth, and sharper than a "serpent's tooth." There may be a minority of the whole people, but they are a minority not to be despised except for the exceedingness of their conduct and ingratitude. These traitors, bad as they are, are nevertheless formidable, and require the most watchful guardianship to prevent them from doing great harm. Yet we believe that if we are alive to our real danger, from open rebel and home traitors, we have strength enough to throttle to the death the deadly viper of rebellion. But we must neither slumber nor sleep, in any fancied security over an assumed superiority. Eternal vigilance is said to be the price of liberty, and so it is, and of the Union of these States with which it is indissolubly allied. If these men, under the abused name of Democracy, gain the ascendency in the councils of this nation, there may come an end to this war, but it will not be such an end as every loyal man must devoutly desire. It will be a false peace, because it will be founded upon the accursed institution of human slavery, which has been the "fireful spring of our woes unnumbered." The South hate the Democrats and Copperheads as heartily as they do the most loyal man in all the land. They broke their faith with Stephen A. Douglas, and thus forfeited the last pledge that could insure any hope of their being true to a Northern Democracy. There may be, and doubtless are, many honest men who are allured by the demagogueism of such men as Seymour, the Woods, and Vallandigham, but they are deceived thereby to follow after a lie. There is no panacea for our troubles to be found in a restoration of the Union as it was, so far as slavery is concerned. Patch up the Union to-day with slavery as the chief stone in the corner, and upon no other condition could a peace be made now, and it would not last a decade of a century. The antagonism, between slavery and freedom, is real and as potent, as is that between the opposing forces in the physical world. He some Almighty hand created this moral opposition, that laid in the deep caverns of earth the elements of those physical disruptions which occasionally shake it to its base.—We believe, too, that from Almighty power the fiat has gone forth that slavery must die, and that this Union must be saved. The world has an interest at stake in the success of constitutional liberty as on trial now in this country, and humanity has an equal interest in the downfall of tyranny and oppression under whatever name. It is a fearful crisis for the world as well as for this nation. A world's spiritual disenthralment, as much as that of our own nation, trembles in the balance of this crisis, and we must rise to a level with this momentous truth, or we can hope to bring our national affairs to a successful issue. Our fathers saw and realized this when they organized for national nationality, and some of them, the great Washington among the number, uttered the most solemn words of caution, which they left as a last legacy to save us from just the evils that we are now enduring. But they had endured and performed their part like heroes, in the sacred cause of liberty, and God has willed to use the final crucible of purification so as by fire of the institution which our fathers founded and left to our care. Let us not shrink from our duties any more than they did from theirs. Let us not, like cowards, seek to curtail the burden upon our posterity. The burden is upon us—placed there in the providence of God—and so let us "quit us like men," and willingly labor and suffer until that shall come to pass which is designed by this terrible war—not a peaceful settlement of our former feuds and difficulties, merely, but the political regeneration of this nation.

THE HEATED TERM.—In our comments on the weather yesterday we stated that the thermometer stood at 76. This was given to us by Dr. R. J. Taylor, and from a thermometer hanging in the cool shade of his store. But later in the day, we are assured that the thermometer ranged from 86 to 88 degrees, in the shade, on the hill and in other parts of our city. This is unusual for our ocean-fanned city, even in the days of July and August, but not beyond the memory of the oldest inhabitant. This weather hastens the arrival of our summer visitors and already the city begins to present its usual summer bustle of equipages.

CHANGE OF TIME AND FARE.—We call attention to the advertisement of the Steamer Perry, by which it will be seen, that the fare has been reduced to the summer rate of 50 cents, to commence on Monday next. The time will be changed during the first part of the week, to accommodate those who wish to visit Newport at Election.

She will leave Providence, on Monday, at 2 p. m. and Newport at 8 a. m., and 5 p. m.

She will leave Providence on Tuesday (Election day) at 7 a. m, and Newport at 5 p. m.

On Wednesday she will resume her usual time—leaving Newport at 8 a. m., and Providence at 2 p. m., and continue to leave at these hours until further notice.

WINE.—A new wine is just coming into popular favor but by no means intoxicating in its nature. We refer to Speer's Sambuci Wine, which has been introduced into the hospitals and principal drug-stores in this city, and in London and Paris, by Alfred Speer, of Passaic, N. J.—Herald Standard

COURT OF JUSTICES.—At the semi-weekly session of this Court, there was but little business, and that not of a criminal nature. It is rather two warm for indulgence in the amusement of "Shinny's" and assault and batteries.

THE RT. REV. THOMAS M. CLARKE, Bishop of the Diocese of Rhode Island, will administer the rite of Confirmation at Zion Church, to-morrow A. M., at the usual hour.

REVIEW OF ALGER'S MURRAY'S GRAMMAR,

A book recently introduced into the Public Schools, Newport, R. I., in place of S. S. Greene's, removed.

QUOTATION.

[An Adjective is a word added to a substantive to express its quality.]

CRITICISM.

We believe that most grammarians state that there is a class of adjectives "used to define or restrict the meaning of a noun, without expressing any of its qualities;" but it is no wonder, with us at least, that a man so remarkable as our author for discovering the sense of words when written by themselves, should be a little puzzled to discover the nature and office of many words when associated with others in a sentence.

QUOTATION.

[The simple word, or positive, becomes the comparative, by adding r or er; and the superlative, by adding st or est, to the end of it.]

CRITICISM.

What have we here? Let us supply ellipses, and see—The simple word, or positive, becomes the comparative, by adding r or er; and the superlative becomes the comparative, by adding st or est, to the end of the superlative! Now, positively, we consider this a mistake of the superlative degree. But omitting to expatiate on particulars, we merely remark in passing, that serious objections might be urged against this quotation on account of its irrelevancy to the subject of grammar, as it was evidently given as an example in illustration of that process of reasoning known in logic as the reductio ad absurdum.

QUOTATION.

[The personal pronouns are thus declined:

Person.	Case.	Singular.	Plural.
First.	Nom.	I.	We.
	Posses.	Mine	Ours
	Obj.	Me.	Us.
Second.	Nom.	Thou.	Ye or you
	Posses	Thine	Yours
	Obj.	Thee	You.
&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.

CRITICISM.

Mine folks are well—how are yours folks? If such is not the right use of these pronouns, why are they given as the possessive cases of the simple personals? If the relative pronoun "that is a kind of compound relative, including both the antecedent and the relative," analogy would seem to require that these possessives, which include both the name of the object possessed and that of the possessor, should be termed a kind of compound noun; but, as for all that we can see, neither analogy nor the genius of our language requires that they should be given as the possessive cases of the simple personals. That these possessives were anciently used before nouns beginning with vowels, we are ready to admit; but we deny that such has been their use in modern times. How these and many other words in our language were used at the time of the Flood, or in the days of the Pilgrim Fathers, is not the question at issue; but, What is the proper use of such words at the present day? We do not object to these words being called, as they are by most grammarians, "possessives," because they involve the idea of possession; but do object to their being given as the possessive cases of the simple personals, because they involve more than this; they seem to perform a double office,—representing not one noun alone, but a combination of nouns—a noun in the possessive combined with one either in the nominative or objective. For example, William says to Henry, your book is soiled and mine is torn,—which sentence, grammatically interpreted, would read, Henry's book is soiled and William's book is torn. To say that "mine" stands for my book, is to assert what cannot be substantiated on any ground of reason whatever; the words "my book" being, not its grammatical signification, but but merely an equivalent expression.

Passing from personal and relative pronouns, we come to another class, entitled "Adjective Pronouns,"—which, we are told, "are of a mixed nature, participating the properties both of pronouns and adjectives." The words my, thy, his, her, our, your and their,—the proper genitives of the simple personals,—are enumerated as "the possessive adjective pronouns." Now, these words are genuine pronouns; and, when used grammatically, each assumes the power of the noun for which it stands, by supplying its place; and can with no more propriety be styled a "possessive adjective pronoun," than the noun which is represented by it can be termed a possessive adjective noun. We consider, furthermore, that the term "adjective pronoun" does not properly apply in its signification to any class of words in the English language. Many of the words which are generally reckoned under this head, do not at all partake of the nature of pronouns, but are of themselves real adjectives. It is certain, at least, that the words this, that, some, &c., can never be pronouns, since they can in no instance assume the the power of a noun; for though the noun may be omitted in writing and conversation, it must always be supplied by the mind of the reader or hearer, to make the sentence intelligible; it is a mere ellipsis of the noun after an adjective, and if this be the criterion by which to establish such words as adjectives pronouns, then the adjectives "good," "bad," "violent," and many others, become adjective pronouns, by the ellipsis of the nouns to which they may respectively belong.

State Local Summary.

The movement towards establishing a Hospital in our State, co-ordinate with the General Sanitary Commission, seems likely to prove a successful one. There was a meeting of the Corporation at the Council Chamber in the city of Providence, on Thursday afternoon.

Hon. James Y. Smith presided and Prof. Wm. Gammell was chosen Secretary. A report of progress was received from the Secretary of the previous meeting, and his statement together with the charter, and other papers were ordered to be recorded and made a part of the archives of the corporation.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Clark offered two resolutions which were adopted.

Dr. Tobey of Providence offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Voted. That a committee of five be appointed by the chair to propose to an adjourned meeting of this corporation such measures as they deem necessary to effect the consummation of the object desired, the establishment of the Rhode Island Hospital.

The following gentlemen were appointed

Messrs. S. B. Tobey, Jabez G. Knight, Thomas G. Turner, Henry L. Kendall and Thos. P. Goddard the Chairman and Secretary were added to the committee.

Addresses were made by Dr. Tobey, Bishop Clark, Dr. L. L. Miller, Dr. Dunn of Newport, His Excellency Gov. Cozzens, Rev. A. H. Clapp, Ex. Eldridge of East Greenwich, Rev. Dr. Wayland, Dr. Clapp of Pawtucket, Prof. Caswell, Rev A. Woodbury, Wm. Rimmey, Esq., Dr. Thos. P. Shepard, and Ex-Gov. Hopkin.

The Corporation adjourned to meet on the 3d of June, at 4 o'clock, p. m., at the same place.

There was a meeting of the Standing Committee of the Rhode Island Society for the encouragement of domestic industry on Wednesday last, in Providence. Sixteen members were present. The report of the Treasurer showed a balance on hand of $251,74 cts.

The report of the Sec'ry was read, containing an account of seeds, articles, books &c., left for distribution at the Society's rooms, and it appeared that a large amount of seeds had been distributed; there is some on hand among which is tobacco seed.

Measures were adopted for extending the Zoological Department, so that, in time, it may comprehend in different sections the branches of Etomology, Ornithology, Herpetology &c.

The Providence Bulletin reads a homily to the youth of that city, which certainly contains very sound advice. There are also in it, valuable suggestions in regard to an undue parental indulgence. If your youth could but realize the vast importance of correct habits, they would avoid much suffering—but, it is often happens, that they will profit by no once experience but their own, and by that, too late.

CURIOUS REBEL STATEMENT.—The following remarkable article is from the Richmond Enquirer of May 15th, and is the one to which we referred in our leader of yesterday.

The Summer Campaign.

THE RICHMOND "ENQUIRER" ON THE NATIONAL WAR POLICY.

Fortress Monroe, 16th.—The Richmond Enquirer of the 15th inst. contains the following editorial article:

"There is evidently to be an active summer campaign. The plan of the enemy seems to be to keep our attention constantly excited at every point at once, so that no part of our whole width of frontier may be freed from the urgent immediate apprehension of an attack. Then they can strike where they think our line is the weakest or where our defenders are least prepared, and if repulsed, they can retire and direct a blow at some other quarter. In the meantime they can bag much plunder and cause much sorrow and heart break to our people by expeditions through thinly peopled regions, destitute of troops. They can also force more and more on our people within their lines the hated oath for a quiet life and to save their property from confiscation. Thus they can both demoralize and rob us within our own borders, preparing all the while for serious assaults and delivering them just when they are ready and where they choose. It is hard to say at what point they are most active just now.—If one looks south-westward, it would seem that the State of Mississippi is the region of most extensive operations. Immense armies are gathering around Vicksburg, and while preparations are in progress for a new assault upon that place, the back country is devastated and the people plundered by cavalry raids; but at the very same moment Charleston is kept on the qui vive by energetic preparations for another attack, by sea or land, or both at once. The object may be only to prevent General Beauregard from sending away any of his troops which now defend Charleston.

At the same instant Gen. Burnside threatens East Tennessee, and Gen Hooker, largely reinforced, is expected to cross the Rappahannock somewhere or anywhere from Culpepper to Port Royal to keep some of our forces employed in the defence of Richmond. Reinforcements are sent to Fortress Monroe. The gunboats are harassing North Carolina. In the Raleigh Progress of the 13th we read: The gunboats continue to prowl up and down the Chowan and Pasquotank rivers. They steal negroes, silver ware, jewelry and everything they can lay their hands on, and have broken up a number of fisheries. They stole some $1000 worth of jewelry from a man named Cook, breaking up his furniture and committing other depredations. In one instance they entered a cobbler's house and broke up his furniture and crockery, &c.

Five or six thousand Yankees are reported to be in Plymouth, and several gunboats are in the sound. There is no enemy at Edenton and Elizabeth City. They recently burnt a mill on Chowan river, the property of Mr. Hayes, situated a mile below Winton. Some persons entertain the idea that the force at Plymouth meditate an expedition up the Roanoke river.

The great number of the enemy's forces and the multitude of their shipping make it easy for them to carry on, simultaneously, all these operations, and they do not care for delay, for it is our people who are suffering, not theirs. The longer this style of warfare lasts, the greater will be the mass of plunder carried North, the more of the mills, machine shops, and railroads they will have destroyed, the more of our national resources they will have ruined and wasted, and the better chance they will have for an inconsiderable advance at last.

They are in no hurry. Last year indeed there was urgent haste to get the rebellion crushed in 30 days, or in 90. Now we hear much less of that vehement urgency, and the whole Yankee nation seems to have laid out its accounts for war as the settled business of life, rather than concert to peace and separation. They are perfectly willing to fight upon the present system for 20 or 40 years. They are willing during all that time to go on submitting to such defeats as they have sustained at Fredericksburg and on the Rappahannock, because by these defeats they lose not a foot of ground. They lose nothing but men, and men are of less value to them than to us; to kill 1000 Southern soldiers they would be willing at any time to sacrifice 5000 Hessians to sustain a repulse, which they would, however, represent as a mere retreat for strategic reasons, and rather honorable than otherwise, and they would regard the transaction as a rather paying one on the whole. One than and gallant Southern lives lost to us are all balanced by the killing of 5000 of their base hirelings. Jackson alone is a decided loss to us than Gen. Hooker and his whole 150,000 would be to them, and their speculation that it may be Lee's turn next, or Longstreet's, and that, at any rate, they are killing us slowly off, and they are, in the meantime, stealing much and ruining more, and their women and children are safe at home—many of them dressed better than ever before, in the spoils of our homes; while the Confederate women and children are rooted out of house and home, and dressed like wild beasts. In short, if we can endure this warfare the next half century, they can and they will wish us joy of our victories and our glory. We urge nothing, want nothing, only state the facts. Such is the policy of the enemy. Such is his calculation, such is his interest and intent.

SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

THE Undersigned agent in Newport for J. J. Mapes, offers for sale the above named valuable fertilizer. The experience of several years in various localities has proved it the most reliable and economical of fertilizers, cheaper, surer, and more lasting in its effects than Peruvian Guano, not so stimulating and productive of fruit and grain rather than leaves and foliage. As a top dressing for meadows, pastures and lawns it has no equal. It is cheaper than bought stable manure, more easily applied, and has the great advantage of producing neither weeds or insects, while it is injurious to no species of the latter. Any information will be given upon application, and certificates of its value can be shown—proving that for the farmer and gardener its effects are most desirable. E. W. LAWTON,

NEW YORK, January 26th, 1863.

ADOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., 22 Beaver St., New York.

DEAR SIR: The want of Pure Liquors for Medicinal purposes has been long felt by the profession, and thousands of lives have been sacrificed by the use of adulterated articles.

We have tested the Bourbon Whisky which you sent us, and consider it justly entitled to the high reputation you claim for it.

We would recommend you to appoint some of the respectable Apothecaries in different parts of the United States as Agents for the sale of your Bourbon Whisky, where the profession can obtain the same, when needed for medicinal purposes.

The following officers and men have been declared duly exchanged as prisoners of war since the announcement in General Orders No. 10, of January 10, 1863: All officers and enlisted men, and all persons whatever may have been their class of action or character, who have been delivered at City Point, Va., up to the 6th inst. All officers who have been captured and released on parole up to April 1, wherever they may have been captured. All enlisted men who have been captured in North Carolina and Virginia, and released on parole up to March 1, 1863.

The paroled troops heretofore declared to be exchanged will be without delay equipped for the field and forwarded to the armies to which they belonged. All officers and enlisted men absent in virtue of being on parole, will now, that they are exchanged, immediately return to duty with their proper commands.

FROM THE WEST.

NEW YORK, May 23.

A Murfreesboro dispatch of the 22d to the Herald says that Surgeon Appleby of the Alabama who was taken prisoner, but released says that Vicksburg was evacuated and Pemberton marched out to attack Grant in the rear, while Johnston pushed him from the direction of Jackson. He says only two Brigades have been brought from Bragg's army to the Mississippi. Bragg has his battle field marked out about three miles from Shelbyville, his line in intrenchment and his troops in fighting condition.

Another Murfreesboro dispatch of the 22d to Herald says that portions two Cavalry Brigades made a night march on Middletown to surround Allen's rebel Cavalry Brigade there. Some difficulty prevented the arrival of all the force and the Fourth Regular Cavalry, in advance of the main column only reached there at day light, they charged, however, upon the rebel camp, completely surprising the two rebel regiments, who fled in disorder. The Fourth Cavalry captured some seven hundred prisoners including the rebel Lieut. Col. Coleman and Major Platten of the 1st Ala., but their supports failing to come up they were unable to secure them. Sergeant Owen with a portion of a company pursued the rebels to Centerville, taking thirty prisoners and dismounting a piece of Artillery, when they ran on a rebel brigade which captured Sergeant Owen and five men. At Fosterville, Gen. Stanly destroyed the rebel brigade camp and all their weapons. About ten rebels were killed and eight taken prisoners. They brought in a bottle flag of the eighth rebel regiment taken, all their horses. The rebel force was the first Alabama and eighth confederate regiment. Our loss was 11. Fred. wounded. Sergt. Owen and five men prisoners.

FROM GRANT AND THE REBELS.

NEW YORK, May 23.

A Washington special to the Herald says that up to a late hour to-night nothing additional has been received from Grant. The news of his operations since the capture of Jackson, although from rebel sources is regarded by the President and War Department as very favorable and indicative of a speedy triumph.

The rebel papers are filled with gloomy and despondent articles on the position of affairs at Vicksburg and evidently anticipate the worst from that quarter. The Richmond Whig is very severe upon the rebel authorities for placing Pemberton in command of that important point.

FROM HOOKER'S ARMY.

New York, May 23.

A correspondent from the Potomac army dating the 21st to the Tribune states that deserters say that the rebel army are in excellent condition and a movement on foot either to cross the River and give us battle near this point or else to cross Kelleys Ford and the Rappahannock Station and drive in our forces in that direction towards Washington and thus compel our army to change its base. They state that Lee feels able to crush our army in its present condition and can easily drive it into the defences around Washington or destroy and capture it. He will probably find himself mistaken. The railroad to Richmond is reported to be in complete running order and large number of officers are leaving on furloughs.

FROM THE SOUTH WEST.

New York, May 23.

The New Orleans correspondent of the World dating the twelfth says it is generally know that Port Hudson is to be attacked this week and it is believed that it may might have landed from the gunboats during the late attack by them, and carried the place. There is no doubt but that Port Hudson is evacuated.

It is expected that Gen. Banks by to-night, the 12th, or to-morrow will reach Bayou Sara with his forces from Alexandria, via Red River and will land there. Gen. Dudley is ready to march from Baton Rouge and Farragut and Porter's fleets are above and below Port Hudson. There seems to be no doubt of the easy evacuation of Port Hudson by Gen. Banks.

A CAVALRY DASH.

CINCINNATI, May 23.

A special dispatch to the Commercial, dated Murfreesboro, May 22d says: General Stanley with a portion of two brigades of Cavalry surprised the camp of the First Alabama regiment and the 8th Confederate Cavalry in the vicinity of Middletown. Our forces were divided and sent around to attack the rebels in the flank and rear, but the advance guard becoming impatient they dashed alone and unsupported into the midst of enemy's camp putting to flight four rebel cavalry. Eight rebels were killed, ninety prisoners taken and two hundred horses captured. The camp of the enemy, including Bowmans town away by them, was destroyed. Our loss was two or three slightly wounded.

GRANT'S VICTORIES AND THE WEST.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says that information received later this evening is to the effect that Grants victories Friday and Saturday were complete and a Richmond paper of the 21st contains the details of the defeat of Pemberton and the falling back of his entire rebel force northward. Johnston was endeavoring to bring the rebel forces together to be made a stand but Grant pursued him so hotly that he was unable to do so and completely outgeneralled. At the date of the latest rebel despatch Grant was on the point of attacking Johnston.

Gen. Banks in a private letter expresses that expectation Louisiana will soon be ready to enter the Union again.—This time as a free state.

A correspondent of the Times writing from Big Black of the River, fourth inst., says. We captured four hundred rebels on the third, and now have possession of all the country below this river, forming a substantial base, of operations and bringing the fall of Vicksburg within the limits probability.

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Providence, April 7, 1863.

GENERAL ORDERS No. 8.

Whereas, the act passed by the General Assembly at its August session, A. D. 1862, entitled "An act to revise Title XXXIV. of the Revised Statutes and to provide for the better organization of the Militia of the State," directs that a complete enrollment shall be made on or before the third Monday of April in each year, of all persons within the ages of eighteen and forty years who are liable to perform military duty—and that the expenses incurred for the purpose of such enrollment, as well as the rolls of names of persons so liable, shall be deemed to be legal notice to all persons named therein of the fact of their enrollment and obligation.

And, whereas, it is further provided by said act that the whole militia of the State shall be arranged in one division, composed of five brigades—to be divided into regiments, battalions and companies, conformably to the laws of the United States—and that each person not already enrolled in one of the existing military organizations now, or who has been for the first time enrolled, and within a date to be limited by the Governor, attach himself to any one of the chartered military companies or may associate himself with others in the formation of a new company of cavalry, artillery, infantry or riflemen, of not less than the regular standard. Now, for the purpose of effectually organizing the militia of the State according to the provisions of said act—

It is ordered,

I. That the several Brigades shall be constituted as follows:

The First Brigade—Of all persons liable to perform military duty within the counties of Newport and Bristol, and the towns of East Providence.

The Second Brigade—Of all persons liable to perform military duty within the city of Providence.

The Third Brigade—Of all persons liable to perform military duty within the counties of Kent and Washington.

The Fourth Brigade—Of all persons liable to perform military duty within the towns of North Providence, Pawtucket, Cumberland, and in the second and third voting districts in the town of Smithfield.

The Fifth Brigade—Of all persons liable to perform military duty within the towns of Cranston, Johnston, Scituate, Foster, Glocester, Burrillville, and the first and fourth voting districts in the town of Smithfield.

II. All persons whose names shall appear upon the enrollment lists in the several towns and cities to be published on the third Monday of this current month, are required before the eleventh day of May next, to organize themselves, preparatory to the performance of military duty, by attaching themselves to some one of the chartered military companies in their respective neighborhoods; or by forming new military organizations, as companies of cavalry, artillery, infantry, or riflemen, of not more than eighty-three men each, according to section 3 of chapter 121 of the act above referred to.

III. And whereas, it is made by said act obligatory upon the Commander-in-Chief to assign all enrolled persons who shall not so organize themselves, to such companies, and to such parts of the service as he may deem most expedient, it is especially enjoined upon all good citizens to avail themselves, before the eleventh day of May next, of the privilege above given, as the proficiency in military training can more readily be acquired by associating with those who have heretofore individual this branch of knowledge, it is particularly recommended that those who come within the operation of the law should attach themselves to first specific duty to the various chartered military companies already organized within the State.

IV. Major Gen. Charles C. Dobbin is charged with the general superintendence and direction of the organization of the militia herein directed. He will detail such number of staff officers as may be necessary to act as recruiting officers in the several towns, for the purpose of arranging the militia according to their choice, into companies, and from time to time issue such orders and make such regulations as shall become necessary for the purpose of fully organizing the system established by said act.

V. The first election for the choice of company officers, to consist of one Captain, one first Lieutenant, and one second Lieutenant, will be holden by each company on the second Monday of May next. Such other superior officers as shall become necessary to complete the organization of the companies into Regiments, will be thereafter appointed by the Commander-in-Chief, to hold their offices until an election can be held.

VI. The Commander-in-Chief solicits the hearty co-operation of all loyal citizens in the effort to place the State in a condition to make a voluntary response to all future calls of the President of the United States upon her patriotism, by encouraging the liberal diffusion of military knowledge, and by aiding, with voice and example, in the successful establishment of a system which will tend to awaken and develope the martial spirit of our people.

By order of WM. C. COZZENS,
Brigadier and Commander-in-Chief.
EDWARD C. MASON, Adjutant General.

Daily papers throughout the State will give the above order three daily insertions, and other papers six weekly insertions.

POSTSCRIPT.

TWO O'CLOCK.

FROM NEWBERN.

NEWBERN, N. C., May 19.

Steamer Ellen S. Terry, Newbern 20, has arrived. She has 250 discharged soldiers of the 3d New York artillery on board.

Gen. Hickman in command at N. Carolina, Morehead City, has recently discovered several underground channels through which the enemy have been receiving large supplies of all kinds, through parties holding safeguards and passes from ex-Governor Stanley. Several guerrilla bands, including a Virginia Cavalry Company, have thus obtained all their shoes and clothing. Important arrests are being made by Gen. Hickman, who has seized all the goods belonging to the merchants in Newport, who have carried on a trade amounting to many thousands of dollars. The safeguards and passes are in the hands of several hundred disloyal citizens, reaching from one end of the department to the other, through whom the enemy have received endless quantities of supplies. Stringent measures are being adopted by military, naval and revenue officers who are endeavoring to break up this extensive traffic. Gen. Wild and staff, arrived here yesterday on the Ellen S. Terry to organize his African brigade.

The following items are condensed from late Southern papers.

The Raleigh N. C. Standard, the special organ of Gov. Vance and the great leader of the opposition party in this State which is now in the ascendency by a two third vote, has comments upon an article from the Richmond Enquirer favoring an "imperial despotic like that of France. The Standard says: "We know a military despotism is making rapid strides in these states we know that no people ever lost their liberty at once but step by step as some deadly disease steals upon the system and gradually but surely stops the fountains of life. We know that tyrants and their minions always prepare the popular mind in advance for their usurpation and that these usurpations are always based upon the plea of the "general good," or "military necessity. The argument now is we hate Lincoln so bitterly that in order to resist him successfully we must make slaves of ourselves. The answer of our people is "We will be slaves neither to Lincoln, nor Davis, nor France, nor England." North Carolina is a State, not a province, she has 80,000, as brave troops as ever trod the earth. When she calls them they will come. If the worst should happen, she will be able to take care of herself as an independant power. She will not submit in any event, to a law of Congress passed in deliberate violation of the Constitution. She will not submit to Mr. Davis, being invested with dictatorial powers, but she will resist such a law by withdrawing from the Confederate States, and she will fight her way against all comers with a courage and an ardor which will eclipse even any former achievements of her sons during the existance of the war. For one we are determined not to exchange one despotism for another. Other oppositions are also coming down rather heavy on the "destructive."

GREAT INDIAN REMEDY

FOR FEMALES.

Dr. Mattison's Indian Emmenagogue.

This celebrated Female Medicine, now being sold in unknown of anything else of the kind, and produces a second effect of Nature's Law. It is designed for both married and single females, and is the only medicine known to the world that can be relied upon in the worst cases, and will bring on the menses in a few days. It contains no mineral poison, and will not injure the most delicate constitution. It is a most powerful and sure remedy for all those painful diseases to which the female is subject, and for all other purposes of the kind have been tried in vain.

OVER 2000 BOTTLES

have been sold in 1862.

Without a single failure, when taken as directed, and without the least injury to health in any case, regardless of age or condition of the patient, with the Female Pills, which are sold by Druggists, Merchants and Dealers in Medicine, in all parts of the country.

Prices—Full strength, $5; half strength, $3 per one strength, $2 per bottle.

☞ Be careful to see that the signature of the proprietor is on the outside wrapper of the bottle, before purchasing, as there are spurious articles offered.

☞ Beware of Counterfeits. None genuine unless signature of the proprietor is on the outside wrapper. Price—Full strength, $5; half size, $3.

Dr. Mattison's Diuretic Compound

For Acute and Chronic Gonorrhœa.

This new remedy contains neither Balsam, Copaiba, Spirits of Nitre, Cubebs, Turpentine, or any other injurious drugs, but is an elegant vegetable preparation, pleasant to the taste and smell, grateful to the stomach, cooling, healing and healing into operation and speedily allaying all heat and irritation in the urinary passage. You, therefore, who have been swallowing down Balsam Copaiba, either in capsules or mixtures, for months in succession, until with pale face and disordered stomach your health and clothes are filled with its vile odor, throw away the disgusting mixtures, and send for a bottle of this New Remedy, which will not only cure you at once, but at the same time it will cleanse the system from the injurious effects of the various mixtures you have been taking so long.

☞ ONE BOTTLE, WHICH LASTS A WEEK, WILL OFTEN EFFECT A PERMANENT CURE.—Price $2.00.

Dr. Mattison's Anti-Syphilitic Syrup,

For Constitutional Syphilis

No remedy ever discovered has done what has been achieved by this. Under its mild form of constitutional syphilitic taint is speedily cured, and in a few weeks the entire poison is completely eradicated from the system, and health and strength are permanently restored.

☞ It is a fact that there are hundreds of cases annually brought from the South, West Indies, Mexico and South America to New York, and to Philadelphia and New Orleans, who have been cured by the use of this medicine in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, for the last three years.

One bottle, which lasts a month, will effectually effect a perfect cure. Price, $10; half size, $5.

Dr. Mattison's Nerve Invigorator,

For Nervous Debility, Loss of Power, Impotency, Confusion of Thought, Loss of Memory, Irritable Temper, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Trembling and Palsy, which will in a short time lead to Insanity.

This new remedy for that fearful train of mental and physical evils arising from venereal excesses, and secret habits of the young, is composed of the most soothing strengthening and invigorating medicines to be found in the whole Vegetable Kingdom, which, in combination, form the most perfect and sure for this obstinate and distressing loss of manhood ever yet discovered.—It has now been sent to nearly every State in the Union, relieving the minds and bodies of hundreds who have never seen the inventor, restoring them to comparative health, strength and happiness. Price—Quart bottle, which lasts a month, $10; half size, $5.

☞ These four GREAT REMEDIES are the result of over twenty years' study and practice, and as now prepared they are known to be the best for their respective purposes, and I am therefore induced to make them public for the united benefit of myself and the sick, who otherwise could never avail themselves of their benefits. They are all warranted as represented, in every respect, or the money will be refunded.

☞ Prepared and SOLD ONLY at DR. MATTISON'S REMEDIAL INSTITUTE FOR SPECIAL DISEASES, near No. 28 Union street, Providence, R. I., and sent by express, secure from observation, to all parts of the United States.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

☞ It has been estimated that over Two Hundred Thousand Dollars are paid to swindling quacks annually in New England alone; and that, too, without any benefit to those who pay it. All this comes from trusting, without inquiry, to men who are alike destitute of honor, character or skill and whose only recommendation is their own false and extravagant assertions in praise of themselves. The only way to avoid imposition is to take no man's word, no matter what his pretensions are, but MAKE INQUIRY. It will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in nine tenths of ten are hogs, they is unsafe in trusting any of them unless you know who and what they are.

Dr. M. will send free, by enclosing one stamp as above, a Pamphlet on DISEASES OF WOMEN, and on Private Diseases generally, giving full information, with the most undoubted references and testimonials without which no advertising physician, or medicine of this kind is deserving of ANY CONFIDENCE WHATEVER.

☞ Orders by mail promptly attended to. Write your address plainly and direct to DR. MATTISON as above. 418-1y

It is arranged that patients never see or hear each other. Recollect the only entrance to his Office is No. 21, having no connection with his residence, consequently no family interruption, so that no account can any person be made anything at his office.

boldly asserts and it cannot be contradicted, except by Quacks, who will do or say anything, even perjure themselves, to impose upon patients, that he engaged in treatment of Special Diseases, a fact so well known to many Citizens, Publishers, Merchants, Hotel Proprietors, &c., that he is much recommended, and particularly to STRANGERS AND TRAVELLERS.

To avoid and escape imposition of Foreign and Native Quacks, who are numerous in Boston than other large cities.

DR. L. DIX

proudly refers to Professors and respectable Physicians—many of whom consult him in critical cases, because of his acknowledged skill and reputation, obtained through long experience, practice and observation.

AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE!

do not hesitate and add to your sufferings in being deceived by the long train of misrepresentations, false promises and pretensions of who know little of the nature and character of Special Diseases, and care not for their cure. Some exhibit forged Diplomas of Institutions or Colleges which never existed in any part of the world; others exhibit Diplomas of the Dead, how obtained, unknown; not only assuming and advertising in names of those inserted in the Diplomas, but to further deceive imposition assume names of other and celebrated Physicians long since dead. Neither be deceived by through false certificates and testimonials, and recommendations of their medicines by the dead, who cannot expose or contradict them; or who, besides, to further their imposition, copy from Medical books much that is written of the properties and effects of different herbs and plants, and then fill up some to their Pills, Extracts, Specifics &c., most of which, if not all, contain Mercury, because of the ancient belief of its "curing everything," but now known to "kill more than it cures," and those not killed, constitutionally injured for life.

IGNORANCE OF QUACK DOCTORS AND NOSTRUM MAKERS

Through the ignorance of the Quack Doctors, knowing no other remedy, he relies upon Mercury, and gives it to all his patients in Pills, Drops, &c., as the Nostrum Makers, equally ignorant, add to his so called Extracts, Specifics, Antidotes, &c., both relying upon its effects, in killing a few in a hundred, it is imagined in various ways throughout the land; but, alas! nothing is said of the hundreds scores of which die, otherwise victims, and are left to linger and suffer for months or years, until relieved or cured, if possible, by competent physicians.

BUT ALL QUACKS ARE NOT IGNORANT

Notwithstanding the foregoing facts are known to some (but) Doctors and Nostrum Makers, yet, regardless of the life and health of others, their are those among them who will perjure themselves, constituting giving mercury to their patients or that it is contained in their Nostrums, so that the "most fortune may be obtained for professedly curing a "One dollar" or "fraction of it" may be obtained for the Nostrum. It is thus that many are deceived also, and unknowingly spend large amounts for experiments with quackery.

MADAME ZADOU PORTER'S BALSAM has been used by the public for over 18 years, and has proved its great merits simply by being recommended by those who have used it, to their affected friends and relatives.

MOST IMPORTANT.—MADAME ZADOU PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM is sold at a price which brings it in the reach of every one to keep it constantly in the house. The timely use of a single bottle will prove to be worth tenfold its cost.

NOTICE.—SAVE YOUR MONEY!!!—How is the poor invalid to purchase a bottle at 12 & 25, which do not contain the virtues of a 1 & 1, Bottle of Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, the cost of manufacturing which is greater than of almost any other medicine, and the very low price at which it is sold, makes the profit to the seller exceedingly small, and unprincipled dealers will sometimes recommend other articles as being their profit may be large, but be certain to ask for Madame Porter's and take no other. A 1 & 1 for Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, price 12 & 25, or 1 large bottle at 50 cts., and take no other. If you cannot get it at your store, you can at mine.

For Sale by all Druggists, and Storekeepers at 12 cts. and in Large Bottles at 25 cts.

CURE FOR PIN WORMS.

DR. E. G. GOULD'S

PIN WORM SYRUP

Is the first and only remedy ever offered to the public for the effectual removal of the Ascarides, or Pin Worms, from the human system. The high reputation it has established in the last two years, and the fact that it is fast superseding all other worm remedies, is the best test of its great excellence.

It affords Relief in twenty-four hours and an Entire Cure is warranted when taken according to directions, which accompany each bottle.

This SYRUP is also a most valuable family cathartic, to be always used when physic is required, especially for children. It corrects the secretions, gives tone to the stomach and bowels, assisting nature in her efforts to restore health. It is PURELY VEGETABLE, AND HUMAN SKILL AND EXPERIENCE.

DYSPEPSIA & FITS.

A SURE CURE FOR THESE DISTRESSING COMPLAINTS IS NOW MADE KNOWN IN A

"Treatise on Foreign and Native Herbal Preparations."

Published by DR. O. PHELPS BROWN.

The prescription was furnished him in such a providential manner that he cannot conscientiously refuse to make it known, although he never was a believer in Clairvoyance, Spiritualism, Pathyology, &c. This natural remedy has cured everybody who has tried it, never failing in a single case. It is equally sure in cases of Fits as of Dyspepsia; and the ingredients may be found in any drug store. Those who are afflicted with Consumption, Bronchitis, or Asthma, may also be cured by the use of my Herbal Preparations, which are charged with electro-magnetic properties, and an essence or aromatic atmosphere is continually emanating from them, in consequence of the positive and negative polarity of its chemical electro-magnetical principle, thereby rendering their efficacy truly wonderful in all cases of Lung Complaints. I will send this valuable prescription free to any person on receipt of their name.

GALVANIZED IRON COFFINS

The subscribers have become agents of the patent GALVANIZED IRON COFFIN, a new article finished in the most beautiful manner and made of what has proved by years of experience to be the most impenetrable or indestructible.

This article in shape and outward appearance resembles a highly finished rosewood coffin. It is much less awkward, in appearance lighter, more efficient and easier handled than the cast iron coffins which have been in use for several years.
